Chapter 1 by Riggio Scoffic

Dan Mchale, banker, tried to say something to the driver; he began with a word then forgot what he was saying. The driver took them along Port Huron until they came to Confed where they stopped at the stone sculptures which stood in front of the departures entrance at Terminal 1. "Here's the end of the line," the driver said, before Dan paid him, got out and entered through the airport doors to the check-in hall.
